IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

SUMMONS FOR JUDGMENT NO.302 OF 2003
IN
SUMMARY SUIT NO.3485 OF 2001

Lata Bankim Shah ...Plaintiff
Vs.
Vinod Madhusudan Sheth ...Defendant

Mr.M.M.Kenia, Adv. for Defendant
None for Plaintiff

CORAM: D.G. DESHPANDE,J.
DATED: 15TH SEPTEMBER, 2004

P.C.

. None present for the Plaintiff. Advocate for the Defendant states that there were four suits between the parties, two before the City Civil Court and two before the High Court. Plaintiff had agreed to withdraw all the suits. Accordingly the suits before the City Civil Court have been withdrawn. He has filed the copy of that letter dated 20th November, 2003 and his reply letter dated 22nd November, 2003, which shows that even the Defendant's Advocate was waiting for a letter from Plaintiff about the withdrawal. It appears that because of this situation nobody appeared on behalf of Plaintiff. Therefore, suit is disposed of as withdrawn.
